NOTICE.—This celebrated Fire Proof safe is no longer made and sold by SILAS C. HERRING, his license to make and sell them having expired.

The thousands of Certificates from Merchants, Bankers and Mechanics of all trades, that have been given in favor of this the only true "SALAMANDER" renders it useless for the subscribers to multiply words in its favor, as full thirty thousand of "WILDER'S PATENT SALAMANDER SAFES," have been manufactured and sold in the United States; and, in almost every large fire that has taken place during the last seventeen years, these Safes have been subjected to the severest tests, and not one of the "Genuine Salamanders" has ever been destroyed.

SALISBURY BRASS BAND

REORGANIZED 1st January, 1866, on a larger scale than formerly, under the direction of its former tutor, W. H. NEAVE, who was also chief music writer and Band Teacher in Gen. Lee's army. He will be assisted in leadship and direction by his brother, Ed. Neave, leader during the entire late war of Gen. Lee's best and most favorite band, viz: 4th N. C. The Band is composed of the best members of the old Band, together with the best members of several of the fine Bands trained by W. H. Neave, in camps, who have moved to Salisbury from all points in the State to follow their respective vocations and continue the study and practice of music. This Band will be a permanent institution for all State and festive occasions, and will equal the best to be found in the world, if sustained by those desiring a fine order of Brass and String music; if not, it must go down after this year.

W. H. Neave is also agent for the celebrated Dodworth Brass instruments, proved and warranted to him, and by him to others; also, the most pleasing, effective and popular Piano music, selected by his friends, H. B. Dodworth and Kent Botsford, New York. For beginners, medium players, and advanced musicians, no trash for either.

Music composed and arranged to order for Parlor, Orchestral and Brass Band use for any kind and number of instruments.

Salisbury has been selected for Musical Headquarters for its central position.

N. B. Mere letters of enquiry for musical information, but with no view to business with Mr. Neave or Band, must contain two postage stamps.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Tuesday, May 29, 1866.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

For Daily, per year,	$10 00
" six months,	5 00
" one month,	1 00
" two months,	2 00
Semi-Weekly, per year,	5 00
Weekly, per year,	3 00

Our terms are invariably in advance. Money may be sent us by the Rail Road conductors or the Express Companies.

The Convention.

The Convention, as will be seen by a perusal of the proceedings of yesterday, has fully embarked upon a course of legislation and Constitution-amending.

Among other features of importance, it will be perceived that Mr. Moore, on behalf of the Committee, submitted a re-written Constitution of the State.

There is a probability that Mr. Caldwell's resolutions of amnesty will be adopted, with a condition that their provisions shall extend to all acts committed by Confederate or United States officers, acting under orders, prior to the termination of hostilities. In this shape, we should be pleased to see the resolutions pass. Their application to United States officers, however, is unnecessary, as that class of persons are already protected by General Orders from the War Department.

An ordinance was introduced, providing that no future public appropriations shall be made by the Legislature, unless by the vote of a majority of all the members thereof, coupled with other restrictions. The proposed ordinance was ably advocated by Messrs. Eaton, Winston and Brown, and opposed by Messrs. Love, of Jackson, Caldwell, of Burke, and Logan.

This ordinance suggests, in our estimation, a wise protection against extravagant appropriations of the public money. Too many precautions cannot well be thrown around this branch of legislation.

The Proposed Washington Mission.

We have heretofore endorsed the State Convention. There is ample intelligence, virtue and wisdom in the body, if properly directed, to make it an instrument of great good. It has already done much to entitle it to the public favor, though some things done have neither been entirely wise or necessary. We are anxious that it shall retain the good opinion of the people as far as possible.

The refusal of the body to adjourn at once, affords no test of its indisposition to do what it believes to be right. There were many reasons which influenced its action, in that regard, which do not at all justify the belief that the body is radical in its proclivities. And while we honestly doubt the power and authority of the Convention to legislate, except upon the matters immediately connected with the object of its formation, and while we believe it has fully accomplished that object, yet we have no desire or purpose to endeavor to thwart its determination to do what it believes to be justly and properly within the scope of its powers.

But first, we must beg the Convention not to stultify itself, or weaken, in the public mind, the dignity of a Convention, by forgetting that there is a Legislature in existence, and by condescending to consume time in the general business of ordinary legislation. Since it is satisfied of its powers, and has determined to proceed with its business, we hope it will confine itself strictly to what is really necessary and legitimate.

And, secondly, we submit, that it should not only preserve its own dignity, but it should carefully avoid, as we hope it is ready to do, any seeming surrender of the honor and the popular sentiments of the people of North Carolina. It must strike the Convention that the people of this State are fully committed to the wise, magnanimous and constitutional policy of President Johnson, as opposed to the peculiar views and policy of the Radicals in Congress.—We regret, therefore, that the resolutions of Mr. McDonald, of Moore, presented on Saturday last, were not more carefully worded. They are as follows:

WHEREAS, The State Convention, at its first session, passed such ordinances as were then considered necessary to secure the restoration of the State to the Federal Union, viz:

An ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of secession; an ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of North Carolina, and an ordinance prohibiting the payment of all public debts created or incurred in aid of the late rebellion,—which ordinances have been duly ratified by the people of the State: And

The Convention then took a recess until the fourth Monday in May 1866, hoping that by that time the President would be authorized, by Congress, to declare the State restored to her former position in the Union and that her representatives would be admitted to seats in the Congress of the United States:

Therefore, Be it Resolved, That the people of the State have manifested their loyalty to the general government, by readily accepting the terms suggested by the President through the Provisional Governor, upon which they hoped to be admitted into the Federal Union.

Resolved, That this Convention have done all that was thought necessary to be done, in order that the good people of North Carolina might be restored to the full enjoyment and exercise of the rights and privileges accured to them, by the Constitution of the United States.

Resolved, That the Convention, and the people of this State, do most earnestly desire that whatever obstacles may be in the way should be removed, that the State be restored to her proper position in the Government; that her Representatives be admitted to participate in the councils of the nation; that her citizens be welcomed to surround the altar of our common country, erected by the patriots of the revolution, and that, in common with the citizens of the other States, they may dedicate themselves anew to the Constitution and the Union.

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed by the President of this Convention to confer with President Johnson and his Cabinet, and, also, with the members of Congress, and ascertain, if possible, what difficulties are in the way of a speedy restoration of the citizens of the State to their rights and privileges in the Union, and that they report the same to this Convention at an early day.

Resolved, That the Governor of this State be requested to transmit a copy of these resolutions to President Johnson, and, also, copies to the Speakers of the Senate and House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States.

Now, let us not be misunderstood. If the Convention, in its wisdom, is not satisfied with the repeated declarations of the President, that North Carolina has done her duty, and is justly entitled to all the privileges of a State under the Constitution; if the Convention still believe, that the President or the Congress still require more at our hands, it would be strictly respectful to the Convention and to the people of the State, if that body is satisfied that any good can grow out of it, to send a commission to Washington to confer with the President, and if need be to ask him to convene his Cabinet, to ascertain what in the judgment of the President and his Cabinet is further required of the State; or if it wants any additional proof than it already has of the purposes of Congress, to request the President to lay before that body (in the absence of our Senators and Representatives) such resolutions as it may think proper to adopt. While we can see no good to come of it, nothing whatever to be gained by it, yet in that action there would be nothing derogatory to the body. But to send a commission to confer with the members of the Cabinet, except in Cabinet assembled, or with the members of Congress, in lobby or wherever they can be found, would be so utterly without precedent and unbecoming the dignity of the body and the State, we hope no one will be found to advocate it.

We take it for granted that there are not twenty-five members of the Convention, who are ready to endorse the late programme of the Reconstruction Committee. We assume, for the honor of the State, that there are not twenty-five members of the Convention, who are ready to disfranchise a single citizen of the State. They are not prepared, we hope, to ignore the force of the constitutional power of the President to pardon. Supposing this to be so, we can see no propriety in or necessity for the commission.

"Impudence and Falsehood."

It is a characteristic of the Editor of the Standard to call hard names. He has an equal proclivity to charge upon others what is proverbially his own practice and habit. Hence, with his usual propensity, he charged upon us the other day both "impudence and falsehood," because we asserted, upon our own responsibility, that Gov. Worth was in no way responsible for the disposition to bring the labors of the Convention to a speedy close; that, as to its powers, he had not expressed an opinion,—at least, an adverse opinion, &c. This the Standard flatly contradicts, and intimates that it can prove to the contrary. We have already challenged the proof.

But what can be said of its shameless propensity to assail the character and blacken the reputation of gentlemen, however high their position for truth, integrity, or even piety, sustained by a life-time above reproach, even on the most trivial occasions, if the Standard regards the person as a political foe or opponent? That this is literally true is proven by its columns, for the last twenty years, and it is a disposition which has not in the least lessened as the Editor has grown older and has himself aspired to positions of honor. It is only a few weeks since, that the Standard, without any necessity laid upon it, sought to blacken the reputation of a distinguished minister of the gospel. Years of toil have been spent in this low, groveling business, and now at an age when men usually grow more wise and considerate, if not more virtuous, the Editor of the Standard seeks to blacken the life-long and more than Roman integrity of Jonathan Worth. And is that impudence, or what prompts it?

The course of that paper forces upon us the development of a little of the history of the Editor of the Standard, while he was exercising the office of Provisional Governor. We will not go into the history of the many disappointments and vexations, which the people of the State experienced at his hands, by his want of frankness and plain honest-heartedness, in the matter of pardons.

It is well known that the position taken by President Johnson, by Ex-Governor Holden, and by the Convention, was, that only those persons in the State could be considered loyal, and were allowed to vote or to hold office in the State, who had been pardoned by the President and taken the required oath. Our people quietly acquiesced in this: No man was inclined to vote unless he had in his possession the evidence of his pardon. And the Convention, in order to give this privilege to the largest number, passed an ordinance, authorizing all persons to vote who might be announced as having been pardoned by the Provisional Governor, up to the day of election.

Now, it is in evidence, that on the 30th. day of Oct. last, and, if we remember correctly, at other times between that and the day of election, the Ex-Provisional Governor did cause to be officially published in the Standard newspaper, and others, the names of five hundred persons at least, whom the ExProvisional Governor officially declared had been pardoned by the President, and that they were authorized to vote, on the day of election, for Governor, &c. It has since been ascertained that, perhaps, not one of the persons so published had been pardoned by the President,—many of them have not received their pardons to this day, and those who have been pardoned find their pardons dated days and months subsequent to the day of the election, in October last. Will people call this "impudence and falsehood," or what?

Moreover, we have heard it asserted as positively true, that before, and on the day of election, the Ex-Provisional gave privately, but did not publicly announce, certificates to persons, that they had been pardoned, upon the authority of which they went to the polls and voted, who had not then been pardoned by the President, and who did not receive their pardons until after Gov. Worth entered upon the office of Governor. What is this? Is it "impudence," or "falsehood," or what? Is it not strange that people who live in glass-houses will throw stones?

Eulogy on Mr. Badger.

It will be seen from the following letter of the Hon. William A. Graham, that he has, at the request of the members of the bar of Wake County, consented to deliver in this City an eulogy on our late distinguished citizen, Hon. George E. Badger. The time is left open for future arrangement,—probably the second or third week of the next session of the Supreme Court:

HILLSBORO, May 26th., 1866.

GENTLEMEN:—Yours of the 22d. inst., inviting me, in behalf of the gentlemen of the bar of Wake county, to deliver in the city of Raleigh a discourse in commemoration of the talents and virtues of our distinguished associate and friend, George E. Badger, whose recent demise occasions so signal a loss to the profession and the country, owing to my absence for a few days from home, was received only yesterday.

However much I regret that your selection for this office had not fallen on some one of more leisure and greater capacity, it will afford me a melancholy satisfaction thus to unite with you in paying funeral honors to one so worthy of every tribute of respect and affection. The time for this ceremony, which you are pleased to refer to my appointment, I trust may be left to future arrangement.

Very respectfully yours,
W. A. GRAHAM.

To Messrs. KEMP P. BATTLE, CHAS. MANLY, THOS. BRAGG, JNO. H. BRYAN, H. W. HUSTED and SION H. ROGERS, Esquires.

"We have not a paper in the State devoted in the slightest degree to her material interests.—With the exception of an editorial in this paper arguing in favor of the establishment of Work Houses, and one in the Raleigh Sentinel on the subject of Railroads, we do not remember to have seen any articles devoted to matters of State importance, unless it be discussions in the Newbern papers on the subject of consolidating the N. C. and Atlantic R. R. Companies.—Old North State.

Our cotemporary is mistaken in one particular. The Sentinel has, in addition to the matter referred to, contained a number of articles in advocacy of the establishment of a Real Estate Bank, which, in our judgment, promises more benefit to the people of the State than any other measure that could be devised at present, and has frequently urged the introduction of capital and labor to our midst.

But the Old North State is right in the main. The press, generally, and ourselves among them, have been too inattentive to State interests, and have devoted too much space and time to the unprofitable consideration of Federal politics and relations. It is our wish and design to improve in this respect,—to pay more regard to our industrial and internal condition. Our people, while still anxious for restoration and reconciliation, have ceased, under the pressure of Radical injustice, to feel that intense interest in national affairs which they formerly did.

WE MAKE no apology for the space which we devote to-day, and propose to appropriate to-morrow, to the report of a Texan's testimony before the Reconstruction Committee (so-called.)

There is a world of truth in the intelligent, frank, blunt and honestly-stated views of this witness. So far as our own experience and observation extend, they embody the sentiments and convictions of nineteen-twentieths of the Southern people.

Notice to North Carolina Cotton Shippers.

A great deal of inconvenience and expense is incurred by our North Carolina cotton planters, because of their neglect of or non-acquaintance with the revenue laws. They send their cotton to their merchants here and elsewhere, for sale, with no sufficient evidence of the payment of the tax. The proper method is to send, in every instance, to the commission merchant, 1st, a certificate of the payment of the tax, and 2d, a permit for exportation, both of which the officer receiving the tax is required to furnish.

Otherwise the tax must, in all cases, be paid again before shipment after sale, here or elsewhere.—Pet. Inder.

It will be remembered that a petition purporting to be signed by some hundred and fifty citizens of Augusta county, Va., grossly libelling the people there, was presented in the Senate recently but denounced in the Stanton press as a fogery, got up by a creature named Dewes. On inspecting the petition, the signatures were discovered to be all in three hand-writings. The knaves, in order to escape the consequences of their villainy, have called in their forgery, and destroyed it; and the Senate allowed them to do it. Mr. Sumner saying it was right to "protect all loyal citizens." What have we come to!

The exports of gold are startling; eleven millions went out last week. It requires sixty-five millions in gold to pay the annual interest on the Federal debt held abroad.

Meanwhile gold is going up, as well as out, as the reports will show.

SHERIDAN, the renowned cavalry officer, who has been stationed for some time at New Orleans, has been employing his surplus energies in a series of interesting explorations into the social condition and stratification of the negroes of that city. He reports, as the fruits of one of his raids in pursuit of knowledge, the discovery that the negroes of New Orleans "constitute a most elegant and refined society." Ahem!

Mr. Seward is the object of unmeasured abuse by those who lately delighted to hail him their leader. Forney's Press, in some comments, makes an allusion to Payne's dagger in a way which being freely translated means, "sorry it didn't kill him."

Butler, in his Boston speech, said: "Conquerors, we have acquired title by conquest to all the people of the South have of life, liberty, lands, rights, constitutional or otherwise." This is the "silver-spoon" theory on which he has been acting.

Ex-Senator Gwin, lately released from prison, is looking as well as ever, says the New Orleans Picayune, and trying to find what he was arrested for. He was never told, and cannot guess.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

An ordinance to grant a general amnesty and pardon to all persons guilty of violating the criminal laws of the State of North Carolina, except to those guilty of capital felonies, was put on its 2nd. reading.

Mr. Jones, of Henderson, moved to amend, by striking out the words "first of May 1865" and inserting first of January 1866," as the time to which the proposed amnesty should extend.—Rejected.

Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, urged the passage of the ordinance, as a measure of compromise, to allay the bitterness and ill feeling which in various sections of the State had grown out of the late war.

Mr. McCorkle moved to amend the ordinance by adding the following proviso:

"Provided, That all homicides committed by persons in the so-called Confederate States army, while acting under orders emanating from commanding officers to whom the defendants belonged, shall also be exempted from prosecution."

Mr. Faulkner moved to lay the ordinance on the table, and on this motion the yeas and nays were ordered.

On motion of Mr. Phillips, the ordinance and amendment were referred to a select committee of nine.

Mr. McIver, (by leave) introduced a resolution instructing an inquiry by the Finance committee in relation to certain provisions of the Revenue Law. Adopted.

ON CALENDAR.

A resolution of inquiry concerning State appropriations for the Chatham Rail Road Company was adopted. An ordinance in relation to imprisonment for debt was referred on second reading to the committee on Constitutional Amendment, on motion of Mr. Moore, of Wake.

Ordinances on 2nd. reading, introduced by Mr. Moore, of Wake, to amend "an act of the General Assembly concerning negroes and persons of color or of mixed blood," were referred, on motion of Mr. Moore, of Wake, to a select committee.

An ordinance calling a Convention in 1871, and a resolution to raise a committee on the subject of adjournment, introduced by Mr. Phillips, were, on his motion, laid on the table.

A resolution in favor of W. H. Harrison, on second reading, was laid on the table, on motion of Mr. McLaughlin.

SPECIAL ORDER.

An ordinance concerning debts of the State to be hereafter contracted, on second reading.—[This ordinance declares that the General Assembly shall make no bill making an appropriation of public moneys, or raising loans on the faith and credit of the State, unless the bill making such appropriation, or raising such loan, shall have passed three readings on three several days in each House of the General Assembly, and received in each House the votes of a majority of the whole number of members. It further requires a record of the yeas and nays upon the passage of such bill in either House.]

On motion of Mr. Eaton, the ordinance was amended, by inserting a provision that the yeas and nays on such bill shall be recorded on each reading in each House.

Mr. Love moved to amend by adding the following proviso:

Provided, That this requirement shall not be applicable to works of internal improvement already chartered or in progress of construction.

After some discussion, in which Messrs Eaton and Winston urged the passage of the ordinance, and Messrs. Logan, Love, and Caldwell, of Burke, opposed it, the latter moved that the amendment be laid on the table.

The Convention refused to lay on the table, —yeas 39; nays 58.

Mr. Brown addressed the Convention in support of the ordinance.

The question recurring on Mr. Love's amendment, on motion of Mr. Henry, the Convention adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

Baptist State Convention.

This body, after four days session, closed its business on Saturday night last. We regret that our young friend, whose reports of the first two days brought us under obligations to him, failed to furnish us, according to promise, with the last two days proceedings.

The attendance of delegates during the Convention was larger than anticipated. Quite a number of visitors were also present.

The reports of the Boards of Missions, Publications and Sabbath Schools were encouraging for the times, and efficient means were adopted for the more zealous prosecution of the work of evangelization. The zeal and success of the denomination afford full evidence of the energy and enterprise of the Church and give assurance of its growing prosperity.

The interests of Wake Forest College claimed the attention of the Convention, and every effort will be made to sustain that useful and excellent Institution.

The services on Sabbath in the several Churches supplied by ministers of the Convention were gratifying to the large audiences which were in attendance, and we trust will prove to be "bread cast upon the waters."

NORTH CAROLINA R. R.—We are requested to state that a form of proxy for representation in the ensuing meeting of Stockholders of the North Carolina Railroad Company can be found at the office of J. G. Williams & Co.

THE GEE TRIAL.—The Military Commission was not in session on yesterday, according to adjournment. The indisposition of one of the members of the Court prevented.

NATIONAL BANK.—We learn, from the Tarboro' Southerner, that the Hon. R. R. Bridgers, with others, has in contemplation the establishment of a National Bank, in that town. The Southerner says:

"There is nothing more needed in our community, than Banking facilities at this time, and no community in the State has better prospects for making an investment of the kind pay.—The freedmen of our county are discharging their obligations with the best possible feeling. The employers are in fine spirits, they have planted liberally, and crops, notwithstanding the cool weather, are very promising. All we need or what are do need is some circulating medium in our midst to keep us going till our crops are harvested."

CHARLOTTE.—A handsome and commodious Methodist Church is in process of construction in Charlotte. It was commenced previously to the war, but its completion was impracticable in the distracted condition of affairs. Its near completion is owing to the energetic efforts of the pastor, Rev. W. C. Power. Mr. Power, by the way, was chaplain of the 14th. N. C. Troops, during the war, and discharged all the duties of that responsible position with a fidelity and usefulness that earned for him the title of the "model Chaplain." He deserved it richly.

Gov. Worth.

A correspondent of the Old North State, writing from this City, and giving an account of the proceedings of the Convention, says:

"To-day, the Governor sent in a message which I hear highly spoken of, but your correspondent will not trouble you with the subjects of which it treats, as it will be published to-morrow. By the by, I called on his Excellency yesterday; he is in fine health, works like a Turk, and is immensely popular. I do not believe any body will be rash enough to oppose him for further gubernatorial honors. I have as yet to hear the first man say, he thought it desirable or even practicable to oppose the present incumbent. He will distance all competitors, and hence nobody is willing to become a martyr to gratify the Ex-Governor's (your readers well know whom I mean,) hatred of a successor."

CUMBERLAND.—The Superior Court of this county was in session week before last. The News says:

"The most interesting case on the docket—that of Mr. McIlhenny, removed from New Hanover county,—was to have been tried on Thursday last, but was continued until the Fall term for this county. The counsel for the defence, Messrs. Robert Strange and Benjamin Hardie, were exceedingly anxious to have the trial proceeded with, as the prisoner and witnesses would be subjected to considerable expense by its postponement. A proposition submitted to them by the Solicitor, to admit the testimony of a witness who was examined at a preliminary investigation, was acceded to, with the condition precedent that all the testimony taken at that investigation should be introduced by the State. The proposition, seemingly fair, was not accepted, and the cause was continued, much to the regret of a large number of persons assembled to hear the trial. The ability of the counsel was displayed in the discussion upon the Solicitor's motion for continuance, and gave assurance that the prisoner was ably represented."

More than $50,000 worth of stock have been subscribed to the Lynchburg and Danville railroad. It is probable that the requisite amount to secure the charter will be raised in a few days.

THE CENTRAL DIRECTORY.

A TEXAN'S TESTIMONY.

Colonel Forshey before the Committee on Reconstruction.

On the application of the Hon. Reverdy Johnson, of Maryland, Colonel Forshey, of Texas, was summoned to appear before the Committee to testify to the condition and disposition of the "States lately in rebellion."

SWORN BY THE CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE.

Q. Of what State are you a resident, and how long? A. I have resided twelve years in Texas.

Q. From what State did you emigrate to Texas? A. I claim to be a Virginian, though chiefly reared in Ohio, whither my father removed from Virginia in my childhood; I received my collegiate education at Kenyon College, Ohio, my military and scientific elements at West Point, my life of manhood has been passed in Louisiana and Texas.

Q. Have you been in the rebel service, and in what way? A. I have served during the war—was Lieutenant Colonel of Engineers, chiefly engaged in the defenses west of the Mississippi.

Q. What knowledge have you of the condition and disposition of the people of the States lately in rebellion against the United States?—A. I think I have pretty good knowledge as to the three Southwestern States, in which my acquaintance is very extensive, and, perhaps may assume to have a fair degree of knowledge as to the other Confederate States; at least I have made the matter a continual subject of inquiry and observation, and without knowing the kind of information desired, will answer when I can.

—Q. What is the state of public order and obedience to the United States authorities in Texas, and the other States of which you have knowledge? A. Good order and obedience are universal in Texas and elsewhere, as I believe. It has never been otherwise in Texas, except, possibly, on the Rio Grande frontier, there may be occasional exceptions among the turbulent characters, that have no special habitation either side of the border.

Q. Please state whether that good order you describe is due to the presence and authority of the United States troops, and whether, upon their removal, there would not be disorder and disloyalty? A. It is certainly in no degree due to the presence of troops. In fact, any exceptions to the remark may be imputed to the irritating fact that soldiers are about. Their removal would be everywhere a public blessing, unless needed on the frontier to guard against Indians or Mexican robbers.

Q. Why do you say "irritating;" are they not well behaved? A. Generally they are, but their presence is understood as an emblem of our subjugation. Every bayonet is a symbol of our subjugation, and is viewed as an evidence that our surrender is not received in good faith. We need no watching, and naturally dislike the guards that watch us.

Q. Would loyal men be safe among you without Federal protection? A. All men were safe before there was any Federal authority among us. After the surrender we were months without officers or law. A military order vacated or annulled all official functions, and deprived us of every species of legal restraint, and for months furnished no substitute for the authority suppressed. Troops have not at any time reached our interior generally, and yet, throughout the vast area of Texas, just replenished by the return of fifty thousand disbanded soldiers, there was as much good order, and as much respect for rights and morals, as in any Northern State, or elsewhere. I regard it as a great test of our civilization; I wish the fact to be put on record in our favor. The same was true, I believe, in most of the Southern States. Not a single resistance to Federal authority has taken place to the present day; and when it is considered that nearly half a million of men have just returned from a conflict of four years, in which they fought for national life and honor, we think they should claim a respect that should remove sentinels, and disband the armies, white and black, that watch us.

Q. Is it generally believed that the troops are kept to humiliate the people? A. Perhaps that would be too strongly to express it. They feel that it is calculated to humiliate, and that those who order it are reckless of this fact. We believe it to be obvious to all, both North and South, that negro troops placed to guard their late masters, is viewed with repugnance and proper indignation by every man, woman and child of true spirit in the South; and some of the military treatment of the South is accepted by them, as intended to degrade them.

Q. Have negro troops been generally sent as garrisons in Texas? A. Fortunately they have not. On the frontier they have been sent in great numbers, but we have very little population there and do not feel it. At Galveston they have had them, but only passing to and from other service. I fear the results would have been serious had they been generally sent through Texas. There are some things our returned soldiers would not bear, and I believe that is one. The question as to the safety of loyal men I have not fully answered. From the time of surrender there were agents and drummers, and cotton buyers from the Northern States all over Texas; and at this time they and other emigrants and travelers from the loyal States, so-called, probably number thousands in Texas. In no case have they been interrupted, so far as I know. If there have been exceptions, they were doubtless the result of imprudent meddling or censorious language. This will provoke individual retort and chastisement anywhere in Texas. Those who mind their own business will be unmolested. It is one of our habits to mind our own business, and to expect and require it of others. We are glad to receive men who bring capital to help us revive our shattered fortunes, and do not care whence they come. I believe these remarks hold good for all the late Confederate States.

Q. Do your people view the Freedmen's Bureau as a valuable and needful institution, and profitable in the re-establishment of negro labor? A. They do not. According to my own observation and the testimony of acquaintances, with whom I have just compared views, from five distant portions of our great State, the influence of the Freedmen's Bureau is universally pernicious, and the institution is viewed by the people, almost unanimously, a nuisance. This remark applies, too, according to my information, to the other States.

Q. Why so? A. For various causes; the Bureau is administered, as far as I can learn, by persons having no knowledge of our people or of the negroes; they are nearly all imported from a distance and are antagonistic in feeling to the people, and self-sufficient as to their duties, and the despotic power seems to have turned their heads; even when well disposed and conscientious, they are so profoundly ignorant of the subject they have to deal with, as to blunder continually, and excite ridicule; in Texas we have been unfortunate in the chief of the Bureau, who was a fanatical, and exceedingly self-sufficient man; he began by preaching to the negroes, and offending society by his social treatment of them; we don't need missionaries to teach us social relations or a labor system; and he offended us by his arrogance and turned the heads of the poor ignorant negroes.

Q. Could you manage the institution better yourselves? Would your people deal fairly and humanely by the negroes? A. The institution is offensive in itself, and a nuisance in practice. If left to ourselves we would reject it, as the only management it deserves. We would probably pass but few laws relating to the late slaves, that would not apply to whites; and as to fair treatment, the best and only real friend the negro has on earth, is his old master. This the poor deluded creatures are fast discovering, and many thousands are returning to their former homes, tired of the freedom thrust upon them, which they never sought.

Q. How would you better the matter? Would the people return the negro to slavery? A. There is no such intent or disposition anywhere to re-enslave the negro. They regard that as entirely a settled question, and impossible if they desired it. It would be presumption on my part to submit a plan extemporaneously upon which our people would work. I can give you the views only of a private citizen, who has never been in, or aspired to, political position. I would suggest, (and believe it would find favor with our people,) such legislation as should compel all men to comply with their contracts for services, in kind, at least for one year, under penalty of working on public works without wages. All men nearly would bargain with and treat them justly, and most men even kindly. The reported antagonism which fills Northern radical papers is not merely exaggerated. It is manufactured out of whole cloth—it is false.—No such antagonism exists; and collisions have occurred only, within my knowledge, where negroes have been stimulated to impudence and hostility by opinions of soldiers or agents of the Freedmen's Bureau. This will never be tolerated.

Q. Have the freedmen gone to work in Texas; and on what terms? A. I am informed that they have generally, since the first of January. Up to that time they had a vague expectation of something more than a freedom, that had only deprived them of homes. Finding that nothing but work would get bread, they have hired, generally, at good wages: Men at $8 to $15, and women at $5 to $12 per month, they clothing themselves. Some planters have hired by giving a share of the crop, one-fourth to one-third.

Q. Is there a disposition to educate and Christianize them? A. We would first endeavor to find bread and clothes for them. I think no one would oppose their getting an education for themselves, like other poor people. It would doubtless be well if they could read the Bible, which has hitherto been taught them gratuitously. It will be well if the negro can maintain the moral and religious teachings he has enjoyed. I have no hope of it myself; as he will have to keep himself, and has neither disposition or capacity to ameliorate the condition of his race. He has no history, no tradition, nothing without or within, to stimulate pride; no aspiration above the service of the master race. Heretofore his master has furnished him religious instruction, to the extent that one single denomination, the Methodist Church, South, reports a membership of hundreds of thousands. This is at an end now. They will have to pay for their own religious teachings like other free people.

Q. Have they capacity to learn? A. To some extent they have. The little children learn rapidly to read and write, but their capacity is limited, I think. They are imitative but without ambition. They will learn, but cannot apply their learning.

Q. Has not this been caused by their long degradation in slavery? Will they not now have sufficient stimulus to produce a different result? A. We believe not. In fact, we view the whole matter from a stand-point so different from that of Northern men, that there is little room for debate.

Q. Will you state whether you are not a believer in slavery, and whether most Southern men share your opinion? A. Emphatically so. I believe that so far from the black man's degradation by slavery, he was exalted by it, and that to the best condition he has ever enjoyed, and to the best of which, as a race, he is capable. For some thousand years he has been in constant contact with white civilization and has ever aspired to serve the master race. He seeks the menial employments, wherever he is found. Even in Northern States, after half a century of freedom, I find him no where teaching your schools, filling your pulpits or legislative halls; but blacking your boots and cleaning your stables and dit[illegible]s. By appropriating him to this department and to manual industry, taking his service, paying him by thinking and providing for him, we believe we serve God and the cause of humanity.

Congress.—Radical Dissensions.

WASHINGTON, May 26.

In the House the tax bill was debated at great length, and its consideration nearly concluded.

In discussing the question of the appointment of a Special Commissioner of Revenue, Stevens moved an amendment providing for the election of that officer by Congress, instead of being appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury. He made a violent onslaught upon Secretary McCulloch, because that officer had said he would not appoint any opponent of the President's policy to office.

He denounced the Secretary as the "recreant tool of a recreant President," and said that it was time to build a wall to protect those who support us against the President.

Hall (Republican) said that Congress had no such power of appointment.

Delano (Republican) defended the Secretary, who was not a slave and thus prevented from speaking his sentiments. Dare he not have an opinion of his own? Must we all square our opinions by a regular line at the dictation of an individual? Just such acts as this of Stevens' were creating a very bad sentiment throughout the country.

Stevens, thus discomfited, withdrew his amendment,—promising to renew it on Monday.

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitative, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence in the mind who restores health and appetite with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most violent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are far superseding all the empirical nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the so called remedies of these last ages, which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the classical that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box half taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicine very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Uterine and eruptive diseases are liberally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all other fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 41 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

An Extraordinary Statement in Regard to Rheumatism and Pleurisy.

Peter Vaden Esq., Dinwiddie county Va., (Nov. 6, 1865) says: "In August 1857, my wife, aged 50 years, was taken ill with what the doctor called a Bilious Rheumatism affecting her whole system; rendering her entirely helpless, so much so, that she had to be lifted and fed as an infant, for the pace of three months, suffering the most excruciating pain, her hands drawn out of shape and stiff, so that she could not use them. After all other remedies failed, in January 1858, I was advised to get the SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS for her. She used the Pills strictly according to the directions accompanying them, and we soon discovered a change for the better, and in one month's using she was well, and continued so up to the present time; has become fleshy, cheerful, and as active as one could be of her age. One of my servants was taken with a violent attack of Bilious Pleurisy. I gave him three Pills, and in about ten days he was up and at his work; said that he felt as well as he ever did, and has continued well ever since.—Another was taken with Pleurisy. I gave the Pills, and she was well and at her work in ten days after she commenced using them. My Doctor's bill has been heretofore from $175 to $200 per year. I have used them in my family, which consists of eighteen white and colored, and have not called in a doctor during the year. This is a great saving. They certainly are the best family medicine ever discovered. After a fair trial I can recommend them as such."

For sale by the Druggists. Directions accompany each box. Sent to any part of the United States for $1 per box. Address

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

With corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood, you are sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula, or Kings' Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints, and Heart Diseases. Try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures these disorders.

During late years the public have been misled by large notices, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound "Sarsaparilla," and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. We can only assure the sick that we offer them the best alterative which we know how to produce, and we have reason to believe it is by far the most effectual purifier of the blood yet discovered by any body.

Ayers Cherry Pectoral is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is useless here to recount the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them.

WARREN, N. C.,

WHITE SULPHUR AND CHALYBEATE SPRINGS.

THE UNDERSIGNED has the satisfaction of announcing to the public, that he has leased these celebrated Springs, and that they will be opened for the reception of visitors on the first day of June ensuing.

His arrangements are of that complete and extensive character, that he will be able to accommodate a large number of guests and to offer greater attractions than usual to those who may visit.

This pleasant and healthful resort.

No trouble or expense will be spared to render his patrons comfortable and satisfied.

The grounds are elegantly laid off, and the buildings are enlarged and improved.

He will have ICE, MILK, VEGETABLES, and all the substantials and delicacies of the table in profusion.

An ICE CREAM SALOON and SODA FOUNTAIN will be attached to the establishment, where those refreshments, as well as CONFECTIONERY, Fruits &c., can be always obtained.

The bar will be supplied with the finest liquors, and a billiard saloon and bowling alley, for amusement and exercise, be at the disposal of visitors.

The Medicinal Properties

Of the Sulphur water have been amply tested during many years by a large number of visitors, and its beneficial results strikingly displayed in the cure or relief of Dyspepsia, Affections of the Liver, Jaundice, Diseases of the Skin, &c.

Another Spring has been discovered in the vicinity of the establishment, an accurate scientific analysis of which [given below] proves that it is a valuable Chalybeate. It is a mild and gentle tonic, and in the opinion of the physicians who have examined it, and witnessed its effects in some cases during several seasons, must prove beneficial in Atonic Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Uterine, Nervous and Neuralgic Affections connected with Debility; and of especial service to persons living in malarious regions of country, whose blood has been robbed of its normal proportion of iron by repeated attacks of malarial fevers.

Persons travelling on the Raleigh and Gaston Rail road will always find a line of stages, under the management of Mr. Granger, ready for their accommodation at Warrenton Depot. There will be a daily mail from Warrenton to the Springs.

J. H. HOPE.
